Question 1: What is the counterfeit of the True Dhamma, now that the counterfeit of the True Dhamma has arisen in the world?
Answer: Any teachings other than the authentic teachings of the Buddha.

Question 2: Why are these teachings grouped as a counterfeit of the True Dhamma?
Answer: Because all these teachings are not consistent with the teaching of the Buddha whose aim is to uproot, eliminate or destroy the defilements. The aim of the Buddha’s teaching is to eradicate craving, the cause of all sufferings.

Question 3: And what is the cause of all sufferings?
Answer: Craving.

Question 4: Craving for what?
Answer:
1. Craving for Sensuality - Craving for the 6 external sense-objects & internal sense-bases.
2. Craving for Becoming - Craving for life.
3. Craving for Non-Becoming - Craving for annihilation (uccheda-diṭṭhi) associated with false view. And these are the 3 causes or origins of suffering. The aim of the Buddha teaching is to help us eliminate all types of craving. So if there is any sutta that encourages enjoyment in sensuality, transmigrating of soul (eternalism) or annihilation, then it is a counterfeit of the True Dhamma.

Question 5: What is the True Dhamma?

Question 6: And what are the 5 detrimental practices that lead to the decay and disappearance of the True Dhamma?
Answer: They are when the bhikkhus, bhikkhunis, male lay-followers, female lay-followers dwell without reverence, deference and deep respect to the:

Question 7: And what are the 5 benevolent practices that lead to the longevity of the True Dhamma, to its non-decay and non-disappearance?
Answer: They are when the bhikkhus, bhikkhunis, male lay-followers & female lay-followers dwell with reverence, deference and deep respect towards the:

Summary: The long lasting of the True Dhamma depends on 4 groups of people: the bhikkhus, bhikkhunis, male lay followers & female lay followers. We all share equal responsibility for the non-decay and non-disappearance of the True Dhamma. Please take serious note!

The disappearance of the True Dhamma is a great lost to us, and we are equally responsible.
